The Operations, Financial and Otherwise, of William W. Hosceir, alias Selonel Lewis M. Hosen, alias "the Sen of Governor Aiken, of South Carolina" -How He Forged Notes, Mended Watches, Appropriated Other People's Funds, and Sailed Under False Colors Generally.

Yesterday afternoon, at the Central Station, a large crowd outside the bar indicated a case of extraordinary interest. And so time proved, for one W. W. Hosceir, a young man who had been slipping along the path of life with unusual speed, was suddenly brought to and put on the later of the work of the path of the pat al. The young gentleman, being enty-four years of age, is of very prep being about ing appearance, though the presence of persons whom he had deluded to his own particular nefit-that is, financially-tended to cause ansteady looks and a varying expression of the

He is of average height, slightly built, and He is of average neight, signify built, and elothed with fine and fashionable garments. During the trial he spoke only to his counsel, and as it proceeded became evidently more depressed in spirits. W. W. Hoseeir, who has from his youth resided in this city, has been in the habit, during a late period, when his "wild oats" were being strewed carelessly around, of assuming various patronymics, principally of individuals living, for the one purpose of improving his personal condition. has he been known as a Colonel wis M. Hosea, of Cincinnati, belonging to 16th United States Infantry, and a W. D. Hosecir, commercial broker of this city, but he aid at one time purport to be the one all-favored son of Governor Aiken, of South Caroline, and at another the hephew of the Rebel Dick Taylor, famous as a Confederate in the late war. Engaged in no regular and stated war. Engaged in he regular and stated distress, young Hoseeir, having, satisfactority to himself, completed certain petty operations, contemplated one on a large scale—forged snudry notes, and obtained large amounts of money on worthless paper, the particulars of which we give in the appended report of the

He has led a fast life, and some of our citizens will remember him as a fashionable young man who, some years ago, sported his fine equipage, having all the accompaniments of nigher aris-tocratic life. Some six months ago he made the tocratic life. Some aix months ago he made the acquaintance of a young and prepossessing lady, a Miss Ettle Royer, daughter of Lewis Loyer, M. D., and was introduced to the family as a Colonel L. M. Hosen, of Cincinnati. The funds which at various times he had obtained were lavishly used in the wedding preparations, the bridegroom having a fine and costly wardrobe, which he had obtained on long credit(!). The puptials were celebrated Wednesday week, the 13th inst., and the next morning the newly married couple started for New York, en route for Europe, the delighted husband in possession various articles for which he had not given a corresponding value.

But susplcion had culminated to a full belief by parties interested in this city (especially those holding his worthless paper), and a spe-cial was sent to look after young Hoseeir. This special learning that the latter was ready to start for Europe by the next steamer, to leave the day following, gave word to Detective James Bennett, of the New York corps, who arrested Hoseir on Thursday, on the steps of the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He was transferred to this city, der the charge of Detective Levi, and placed yesterday afternoon, when he for the defense The first witness called was Dr. Royer, re-iding at The first winces called was Dr. Royer, re-iding at No. last Broad street. Sworn and examined—I know this defendant; he got $2000 from me; it was under these circumstances; he had a draft for $600, ine money for which he said was deposited to his credit in the First National Bank, Chromoal; (the draft was here shown and hientified;) he said the money had been deposited for him by his mother; on this statement I advanced him $2000; this was on the 13th of March last, one week ago; he themset (that is, in the evening), and went to New York; I next saw him on the Fridsy night following; he was then under arrest; I snoke to him about the money he replied it was not his fault, for if the money was not deposited as was responsible for the sum, and then acknowledged that instead of having $600 deposted, or to be deposited, the amount was but $5000. The name he was known by was the same as that on the draft—I. M. Hosea, of Cincinnati—and that his residence was near hexington, Kentucky; I ascertained by communication from the Cashier of the Bank on which the draft was drawn, and by telegraph, that he had no money depofrom the Cashier of the Bank on which the drait was drawn, and by telegraph, that he had no money depo-sited in that institution; I communicated back that the mother of the prisoner was to deposit it, but heard of no such occurrence. Cross-examined—Hoseeir said his mother would of no such occurrence.

Cross-examined—Hosesir said his mother would make a deposit; after he was arrested I received about $1000 in gold from him, which would amount, in green-backs to about $1300; he said his mother resided within seven miles of Lexington, Kentucky; he said that if the money was not there at the bank at the time the draft was drawn, it should be; I did not sond the draft to Cincinnati, I only knew that it would not be honored by what I ascertained by letter and despatch; I do not know of my own personal knowledge whether money was deposited or not: I advanced the money on the strength of the worth of the draft; he promised to pay the money all back again: I did not advance the whole amount of the draft, because he did not ask it; this is the only draft I saw.

did not ask it; this is the only draft I saw.

Mr. Dueze, of Northumberland county (now staying at the La Pierre House), sworn—I know the prisoner: made his acquaintance about eight days ago: I gave himfa note for $5000: he also borrowed my watch: for the note he gave me adraft on Cincinnati (draft shown and identified); he told me that his mother had deposited money to his credit, to the amount of $5000: he said that he was very much in debt, that money had not been sent to him, and that he desired funds: he represented to me hirst that he had a great deal of money, more than he could make use of, that he would part with some on a note of $5000; I told him that I would refer him to Dr. Royer, as to whether I should do it or not; the result was that he would lond me money and desired my note for it; the note was found on him at the time of his arrest; I got my watch back, not from Hoseeir, but from the delactive.

watch back, not from Hoseetr, but from the de-lective.

Cross-examined—I have not been in the habit of borrowing money from Hoseetr, he wanted to tend the money to me! I referred him to Dr. Royer, be-cause he was a stranger to me! I told him I would give my note; he did not seem to care ranch who her he got the note or anything else in particular: he assured me that there was money deposited by his mother to his credit; I did not use the draft; I did not present it; I knew by a letter received from the Presi-dent of the Eaton Bank of Ohio that it was no good and would not be honored; this President knew by communicating with the President of the First Na-tional Bank of Cluclumt.

William R. Anderson, clerk at the La Pierre House, sworn—Two drafts shown and identined: I filled those drafts for a gentleman by the name of Lewis M. Hosen, who signed them; it was done in the office of the La Pierre House: there were no stamps on the drafts when I filled them; this is all that I had to do with the matter.

Colonel G. W. Howard sworn—I am acquainted with a L. M. Hosen in the army of the United States, who resides at Cincinnati now; he was lately a colonel in the army, or rather a brevet lisentegrate colonel.

Simon Savens (residing at No. II S. Fourth street) sworn—I know the prisoner: have known him Sord months; he lived with Mr. Keenan, and I think his business theirs was a broker; I sever saw him with a uniform on: I was ied to believe by the sign over his office and place of business on Third street that he was a broker; the full name on the sign was W. W. Hosea; I knew nothing of his name except what I saw on the sign: he visited my house occasionally; he got some property from my house—a small gold watch—about four months ago, which watch he desired to have repaired; I have never seen It since: I thereafter lost sight of him: I think he went by the name of W. W. Hoseefr.

George F. Brooke sworn—Reside at No. 738 North Nineteenth street; am a commercial agent, doing business at Sixth and Chesnut streets; have known the prisoner since 1820-61; he lived then on Pine street, between Fitth and Sixth, with his mother; his name was W. D. A. Hoseeir; he told me once he was a broker on Third street; I knew from what he said of his receiving a commission as Lientenant in the United States Navy that he was a naval officer; I have heard of him as a son of floovernor Aiken, of South Carolling.

Mr. Wetherly examined—I knew the prisoner prior to December, 1862: I made his accompliance.

Mr. Wetberly examined—I knew the prisoner prior Mr. Wetherly examined—I knew the prisoner prior to December, 1862; I made his acquaintance while he was visiting a student in my office, by the name of Benner; he was accessed as "Billy," or William Hosea; he came to me in the early part of December, and in the course of conveniation he represented that he had lost his overcost, which was stolen at a party at the house of Budson S. Burr that he had attended a night or two previous; that he wanted to go to Washington that evening, and desired, me to let him have some money to buy an overcost: I tave him $25, which he promised to remit on reaching Washington; in a couple of days he came back, and I loaned him $10; he represented that he was deeply indebted to him; I have never received or demanded the money; he told me at one time that he had sown his wild oats, and would reform; he said that when he asked the

Dr. Royer recalled, said that when he asked the defendant what his business was, he said that he was a Major, but was not then in service.

The evidence nere closed.

District Attorney Mann, in closing for the prosecution, said that the case was one wherein no doubts come be entertained of the guilt of the prisoner, and which demanded ricorous punishment. It had been proven that his name is W. W. Hoseelr, and that ne does and has resided in this city for years past. That he has represented himself to be L. M. Hosea of Chechnati. He, by assuming the names of other persons, and the one above mentioned, obtained two line and valuable suits of uniform from a tailor. He has made himself known, at one time as son of Governor Aken, of South Carolina and at another as nephew of the rebel General Taylor. That he was engaged in and commanded at the battle of Island No. 10. Represents himself as having good credit in the first National Bank of Cincinnati. Is advanced $2000 on a draft which he deposits in the hands of Dr. Royer. After obtaining other articles he leaves for New York, intending other articles he leaves for New York, intending the lake the first steamer for Europe, without setting his bills, and holding a $500 note, given by Mr. Dueze, who accepted on his representations, his worthless draft, and also taking the latter's watch, which for a time he had borrowed. He at that time assumed to be, and was known as Colonel L. M. Hosen. In these cases he stands guilty of obtaining money on faise pretenses, and forgery. According to law, the making or altering a paper to the injury of another, is a pensi offense. He has, by his decoptions, insinuated himself into society for the purpose of detrawding, and I sak that he he held in sufficient ball to guarantee his appearance at the text term of the County Court.

ball to guarantee his appearance at the next term of the County Court.

Mr. Woliaston, for the defendant, did not agree with the statement of the District Attorney. Stated that there was nothing to snow that the draft would not have been paid and they been presented to the bank. That there was no intention of defrauding, as he had paid back part of the amount he had received from Dr. Royer, and that the articles given to his charge would yet be returned.

We learn that the young swindler and forget who is now receiving the attention of the public and the judicial authorities, has graver misdemeanors in his record than have yet appeared. During the first years of the war he is said to have served as a volunteer aid, without pay, on the staffs of A. J. Smith and Rosecrans pay, on the stalls of A. J. Smith and Rosecrans in the Southwest, for a short time on each. He was also for several months orderly ser-geant of an Ohio regiment, and later was appointed an acting master's mate in the Mississippi Squadron by Admiral Porter, He was ordered aboard the United States steamer Nymph, and while attached to her, in the first division of the squadron, and lying near Baton Rouge, he deserted to the enemy in the uniform of an officer of high rank in the navy. He was recaptured by a detachment of the Union troops sent out for the purpose, placed abourd the ship, in Irons, for several weeks, and tried by a naval general court martial, which adjudged a severe sentence-imprisonment for many years—but the record of the court was burned in the United States flag-ship Black Hawk, at Mound City, Illinois, in April, 1865 and there being no other record of the case, he escaped punishment, and was finally dishonorably discharged from the navy. His address and appearance while in the navy are represented to have been very gentlemanly, and he was considered as a young man of more than ordinary ability. He was held in close confinement on the United States receiving ship Great Western for several months prior to his discharge, which occurred

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH, WASHINGTON, March 21.

The Philadelphia Offices. The contest over the Federal offices in your city still continues. Considerable "wire-pull-ing" is going on between the friends of Senator Cameron and the Democrats, towards dividing the "spoils" between the two parties. The suc-cess of this combination, however, is doubtful. It is said that Cameron will favor the confirmation of a Democrat for Collector of the Port, i he can get Mr. John Hiestand, radical Republican nominated for Navai Officer, No action has been taken upon the nomina-tions of Messrs, Crawford and Frazier, and it is said they are laid up till Senator Cameron is ready to act upon them. Senator Fessenden favors the latter's confirmation, and Mr. Fragier will no doubt be confirmed, as he is the lesst objectionable.

The Republicans in the Fourth District of your city are trying to make a compromise with the Democrats, by giving them Thomas McGrath, Democrat (of the firm of Sarmiento & Grath), for Collector, and the Republicans to have Mr. Henry M. Mr. Holman (Indiana) suggested its extension to laborers in the Navy Yard, etc.

Mr. Schepck explained that there had been an advance of wages made to those labosers which brought them up to a point as if they had had twenty per cent, added to their original pay.

Mr. Julian (Ind.) stated that they had no recent increase, and that they were absolutely starving from the insufficiency of their pay to support their families.

Mr. Benjamin (Mo.) suggested its extension to the employes in the Government Printing Office, and Mr. Chanier to the laborers in the Patent Office.

To these and other suggestions Mr. Schenck replied that while he would not oppose such extensions, if they were found to be proper, still his proposition simply covered two cases where the construction of the Department had been adverse to the claims of those employes, while they were certainly intended to be included. He moved the previous question.

The spreader proceeded, as the first business in order in the morning hour, to the call of committees for reports.

Mr. Huiburd (N. Y.), Chairman of the Committee of Public Expenditures, stated that the Committee had taken testimony which apparently inculpated one or more members of the Senate, and that the Chambittee deemed it proper to report it to the House, so that such action might be taken as comported with the courtesy due from one House to the other. He offered the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the House having been informed by one of its committees that testimony has been brought to the knowledge of the said Committee, which testimony apparently inculpates one or more members of the Senate, the House therefore directs that all such testimony be transmitted to the Senate for its information. ward 263 leet 11 inches to Geary street; thence south-ward along said street 36 feet to lot marked in said Plan No. 25; thence extending eastward 267 feet and one-quarter of an inch to Ridge road, subject to a ground rent of Silver anoun. ground rent of $15 per annum. Three-lifths of the purchase money may remain on Mr. Taber (N. II.) stated that, as one of the minority of the Committee, he did not agree to the report. The evidence, to his mind, was entirely insufficient to base a resolution upon, and he asked that it should be read to the Marse.

Three-fifths of the purchase money may remain on mortgage.

This property now rents for $40.

not state the facts, so that the Housemight act understandingly, and not send a virtual impeachment of one or more Senators without knowing the testimony on which the action is founded.

Mr. Hulburd had not the slightest objection to having the testimony read. The Committee had reflected somewhat on the subject, and had come to the conclusion that it was more courteons, more decorous, and would give least scandal, not to have the testimony read, but to have it transmitted to the Senate for its information and action.

Mr. Brooka (N. Y.) objected to the use of the words "apparently inculpating" Senators. Inculpating was a very hard word, and he submitted that the House was not quite prepared to use it in reference to Senators. He was quite satisfied that the matter should be referred to the Senate for its action, but no language should be used that could be considered discourteous. He suggested that, instead of the words "apparently inculpating," the word "affecting," or "baving reference to," be used.

Mr. Hulburd had no objection to using the words "apparently affecting," and he modified the resolution accordingly.

Mr. Taber (N. Y.) stated that the testimony taken by the Committee last accision affecting these Senators (understood to be Messrs, Doollitts, and Patterson, of Tenn,—Reporter), had aiready been published in the New York papers, and was therefore within the cognizance of the Senate.

The testimony taken this session, and on which the resolution was hazed, should be read to the House.

Mr. Broomali (Pa.), another member of the Committee stated he had no objection to the testimony being read, but he wished it distinctly understood the publicity sought to be given to the testimony and that the majority of the Committee did not volunteer.

Mr. Biegnam (Obto) inquired how the Senate could silving it publicity.

Mr. Proomali replied that that was a matter for the Senate itself to determine: but he did not see what with closed doors.

Mr. Roomali replied that that was a matter for the Senate itself to det REAL ESTATE-SAMUEL C. FORD & REAL ESTATE—SAMUEL C. FORD & SONS.—LOT, NEAR FISHER'S LANE STATION, GERMANTOWN, THREE FRONTS.
